

Work experience

Cloze activity

Read or listen to these articles on myWAY Employability:

- Preparing for work experience and internships (click here)
- Undertaking work experience and internships (click here)

Step 1. Word search

 Look for these words in the articles and tick each box when you find the word.

<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Word list	Definition and example sentence
	Resume	Writing about all the work and work experience I have done "Please bring your resume to the interview."
	Reference	A supervisor writes a reference to tell other people how well you do your job "Bring your reference to the interview."
	Dislike	Not liking "I really dislike having to clean out the rats' cages."
	Online	Using the internet, like a website "The job application is online."
	Family	Your parent/s and carer/s as well as any brothers or sisters you have "Your family might know someone who owns a business."
	Practice	Doing an action or task over again so that you get better at it "I practiced getting ready for work experience today."
	Clothes	What you wear "My work clothes have my name on them so customers can call me by my name."
	Questions	Anything you ask someone else to find out something "I had a question for my teacher about using the website."
	Experience	Something that happens to you "That school excursion to the zoo was an interesting experience."

Step 2. Finish the sentence

The sentences below are incomplete.

Use the word from the wordlist that finishes each sentence.

- When you go to a workplace and learn about how to do a job, it is called work _____.
- School can help you organise a work experience. You can also search for opportunities _____. You also can speak to your _____.
- It's a good idea to ask your work experience supervisor for a _____.
- You can also include your work experience on your _____.
- It's OK to have a list of _____ to ask your supervisor on your first day of work experience.
- Before you start your work experience it's a good idea to write down and/or how to get to your work experience and to have your work _____ organised in advance.

