Selection criteria

Essential skills and knowledge

- Good interpersonal and teamwork skills.
- Organisational and time management skills.
- Good written and oral communication skills.

Desirable skills and knowledge

- Ability to stay calm and manage unexpected changes.

Step 2. Address the selection criteria

Read the example:

I meet all the selection criteria.

Essential criteria

I have good interpersonal skills. For example, I help in the library at lunchtimes and have to be helpful and welcoming.

I can organise how to do all my chores at home so that I finish them quickly.

I have good time management skills because I am never late to class.

My communication skills are good and I can phone my Dad's work and talk to him and his co-workers politely.

Desirable criteria

I can manage when my bus changes but I might have to take time at school to calm down before I start class.

Now write how you meet the selection criteria on a separate sheet of paper.

Write about each skill and knowledge listed in the selection criteria.

- Use headings.
- Write a sentence that says the skill that you have.
- Write a sentence about when you have used this skill.

Step 3. Write a covering letter

Read this example of a covering letter:

Dear Mr Smith,

My name is Peter Costello and I would like to apply for the Speaker Liaison role.

Please find attached a paragraph that explains how I meet the selection criteria and my resume.

I would really like to be considered for this role because I am good at mixing and talking to people on the phone.

Your sincerely,

Peter Costello

Now write your covering letter on a separate sheet of paper.

Write about:

- Who you are.
- What job you are applying for.
- What documents you are giving them.
- A sentence about why you will be good at the job.

Step 4. Make your job application

Put these 3 documents together:

- Covering letter that you have written.
- Your address to the selection criteria.
- Your resume.

Give your application to _____.
